

NT MISS

beautiful thing...

ere's one TV show you don't want to miss summer it's Ugly Betty, back for series e with more shoes, sex and scandal.
lovely Betty (America Ferrera, above) ms from her trip and realises she must e some big decisions. Over at Mode, the lating Wilhelmina is trying to poach
y. But Betty's boss, Daniel, is distracted bigger battle - to keep his son in the US. when a pregnant Christina falls down stairs under shady circumstances, she n't know who to trust - even ex-hubby der suspicion. Delicious divas.
ore information, visit channel4.com.

COOK IN STYLE

Inject a hit of colour
into your kitchen
this summer with
this bright buy.
The eight-piece
NEST set, £35,
Joseph Joseph
(josephjoseph.com),
includes mixing
bowls, measuring cups, a sieve and even a colander. And its clever stacking
system means it will fit in the snuggest
of kitchens.

Staying in

Your guide to film, folk singers and fantastic reading. Plus, Wii workouts in your living room

RELAX

Laid-back listening

St Vincent, aka Annie Clark, is the Oklahoma-born folksy, funky and 'disturbingly talented' singer songwriter who those in the know are tipping for greatness. Her laid-back, bittersweet grooves are perfect for an early summer's day, which is handy - her new album Actor (£8.98, amazon.co.uk) is out now. Listen online at ilovestvincent.com.

